Exhibition of the Five Finalist Designs for a Permanent Memorial

September 7, 2004 – October 8, 2004

A design competition is under way to create a permanent memorial at the African Burial Ground. The General Services Administration and The National Park Service conducted a series of public forums from June 12 through June 17 to introduce five finalist design proposals for the memorial and to allow the design finalists to refine their designs based on all public comments provided to them. This exhibition features the revised proposals submitted by the five finalist design teams after their review of the public comments.
